

Stakeholder Media and Child Protection Policy

Ngong Road Children's Foundation (NRCF) and its affiliate organization, Friends of Ngong Road (FoNR) are committed to protecting the privacy and safety of all the beneficiaries in our program. This Policy outlines the specific procedures for all NRCF/FoNR stakeholders, including sponsors, donors, volunteers, board members, partners, visitors, trainers and supporters of NRCF/FoNR that they must adhere to while interacting with the beneficiaries. As an extension of our profound commitment to child protection, this policy establishes clear guidelines for all relevant stakeholders, ensuring responsible and respectful practices.

Data Protection Guidelines

1. All stakeholders excluding the sponsors and donors are strictly prohibited from capturing any photographs of the beneficiaries during their engagement with NRCF/FoNR. Sponsors and donors are allowed to take photographs but are strictly prohibited from posting such images of the beneficiaries online, including on social media platforms. This is designed to ensure the privacy of our beneficiaries.
2. Photos and videos should only capture children engaged in permitted activities e.g. Saturday Program, outings, etc and portray them with dignity and respect. Inappropriate or exploitative content is strictly prohibited. This includes but is not limited to, photos or videos that:
 - a. Focus on a child's poverty or suffering.
 - b. Show a child in a compromising or unsafe situation.
 - c. Capture a child's emotional distress.
3. By participating in NRCF programs and engaging with the beneficiaries, stakeholders provide consent for the use of their images in NRCF/FoNR-related media materials. This includes but is not limited to photographs, videos, and promotional materials. NRCF may utilize these images for purposes such as program promotion, fundraising efforts, and public awareness campaigns. We are committed to using these images responsibly and respectfully, ensuring the privacy and dignity of all individuals involved.

Child Protection

NRCF/FoNR is dedicated to providing a safe and secure environment for all children. As a stakeholder of NRCF/FoNR, you play a vital role in upholding this commitment. This statement outlines our Code of Conduct, which details expected behaviors when interacting with NRCF beneficiaries. In addition to this Code of Conduct, all relevant stakeholders are required to abide by NRCF's comprehensive Child Protection Policy.

General Acknowledgment and Commitment

I,....., acknowledge that:

- I have received and read NRCF/FoNR's Stakeholder Media and Child Protection policy statement.
- I agree to the use of my images in photographs or videos by NRCF/FoNR for the purposes mentioned above.
- I will adhere to NRCF's Child Protection Policy, which details expected behaviors when interacting with beneficiaries and uphold a safe and secure environment for all children
